

Jeff DeGallier, M.Ed., is currently serving as a Principal on Special Assignment for the Lake Washington School District in Redmond, Washington providing support for district-wide implementation of MTSS. In his thirty-three years in public education he has served as a junior high teacher, middle school assistant principal and principal, and an elementary principal in a Title 1 School. Through collaboration with educators and families he is dedicated to creating learning environments where every student knows they are loved and achieve high academic standards.