

Jill M. Pentimonti, Ph.D., is Director of Research Advancement and affiliate of the Institute for Educational Initiatives at the University of Notre Dame. The focus of Dr. Pentimonti's research is primarily on examinations of applied issues in early reading development and instruction, such as empirical validation of commonly used educational practices and evaluations of specific language and early reading interventions.